1. The requirements of this part shall be applicable to the carriage of dangerous goods by air as specified in Annex 18 and the current Technical Instructions for the Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods by air (ICAO DOC. Nr. 9284-AN/905), whether that transport relates to an operation under general aviation, aerial work or commercial transport requirements
2. The requirements under this part are also applicable to domestic operations.

18.1.2.1 The Minister may grant exemptions for the following, as long as every effort is made to achieve an overall level of safety in transport that is equivalent to the level of safety provided by this part:

- in cases of extreme urgency; or
- when other forms of transport are inappropriate; or
- full compliance with the prescribed requirements is contrary to the public interest.

18.1.2.2 If the Netherlands Antilles is the State of Overflight and none of the criteria for granting an above mentioned exemption are relevant, an exemption may be granted based solely on whether it is believed that an equivalent level of safety in air transport has been achieved.

18.1.3 Any location on aircraft

Any instructions or limitations contained in the Technical Instructions for the carriage of dangerous goods on passenger or cargo aircraft, as therein defined shall for the purpose of this part be interpreted as applying also to the carriage of such goods beneath passenger or cargo aircraft.

1. The Directorate shall inform ICAO of difficulties encountered in the application of the Technical Instructions and of any amendments which it would be desirable to make to them.
2. Although any amendment to the Technical Instructions with an immediate applicability for reasons of safety may not yet have been implemented in the Netherlands Antilles, the movement of dangerous goods which are consigned from another Contracting State in accordance with that amendment providing the goods comply in total with the revised requirements shall nevertheless be facilitated in the territory of the Netherlands Antilles.

18.1.7 Exceptions

1. Articles and substances which would otherwise be classed as dangerous goods but which are required to be on board the aircraft in accordance with the pertinent airworthiness requirements and operating regulations, or for those specialized purposes identified in the Technical Instructions, shall be excepted from the provisions of this part.
2. Where articles and substances intended as replacements for those described in above paragraph or which have been removed for replacement are carried on an aircraft, they shall be transported in accordance with the provisions of this part except as permitted in the Technical Instructions.

18.3.2 Dangerous goods forbidden for transport by air unless exempted

The dangerous goods described hereunder shall be forbidden on aircraft unless exempted by the States concerned under the provisions of paragraph 18.1.2.1 or unless the provisions of the Technical Instructions indicate they may be transported under an approval issued by the State of Origin:

- a) articles and substances that are identified in the Technical Instructions as being forbidden for transport in normal circumstances; and

The transport document shall bear a declaration signed by the person who offers dangerous goods for transport by air indicating that the dangerous goods are fully and accurately described by their proper shipping names and that they are classified, packed, marked, labeled, and in proper condition for transport by air in accordance with the relevant regulations.
3. In addition to the languages required by the State of Origin and pending the development and adoption of a more suitable form of expression for universal use, English must be used for the dangerous goods transport document.

18.7 Operator's responsibilities

18.7.1 Acceptance for transport

An operator shall not accept dangerous goods for transport by air:

- a) unless the dangerous goods are accompanied by a completed dangerous goods transport document, except where the Technical Instructions indicate that such a document is not required; and

Leaking or damaged packages, overpacks or freight containers shall not be loaded on an aircraft.
2. A unit load device shall not be loaded aboard an aircraft unless the device has been inspected and found free from any evidence of leakage from, or damage to, any dangerous goods contained therein.
3. Where any package of dangerous goods loaded on an aircraft appears to be damaged or leaking, the operator shall remove such package from the aircraft, or arrange for its removal by an appropriate authority or organization, and thereafter shall ensure that the remainder of the consignment is in a proper condition for transport by air and that no other package has been contaminated.
4. Packages or overpacks containing dangerous goods and freight containers containing radioactive materials shall be inspected for signs of damage or leakage upon unloading from the aircraft or unit load device. If evidence of damage or leakage is found, the area where the dangerous goods or unit load device were stowed on the aircraft shall be inspected for damage or contamination.

18.7.7 Separation and segregation

1. Packages containing dangerous goods which might react dangerously one with another shall not be stowed on an aircraft next to each other or in a position that would allow interaction between them in the event of leakage.
2. Packages of toxic and infectious substances shall be stowed on an aircraft in accordance with the provisions of the Technical Instructions.
3. Packages of radioactive materials shall be stowed on an aircraft so that they are separated from persons, live animals and undeveloped film, in accordance with the provisions of the Technical Instructions.

18.7.8 Securing of dangerous goods cargo loads

When dangerous goods subject to the provisions contained in this part are loaded in an aircraft, the operator shall protect the dangerous goods from being damaged, and shall secure such goods in the aircraft in such a manner that will prevent any movement in flight which would change the orientation of the packages. For packages containing radioactive materials, the securing shall be adequate to ensure that the separation requirements mentioned above are met at all times.

18.7.9 Loading on cargo aircraft

Except as otherwise provided in the Technical Instructions, packages of dangerous goods bearing the “Cargo aircraft only” label shall be loaded in such a manner that a crew member or other authorized person can see, handle and, where size and weight permit, separate such packages from other cargo in flight.

18.8 Provision of information

18.8.1 Information to pilot-in-command.

The operator of an aircraft in which dangerous goods are to be carried shall provide the pilot-in-command as early as practicable before departure of the aircraft with written information as specified in the Technical Instructions.

Operators, shippers or other organizations involved in the transport of dangerous goods by air shall provide such information to their personnel as will enable them to carry out their responsibilities with regard to the transport of dangerous goods and shall provide instructions as to the action to be taken in the event of emergencies arising involving dangerous goods.

18.8.5 Information from pilot-in-command to aerodrome authorities

If an in-flight emergency occurs, the pilot-in-command shall, as soon as the situation permits, inform the appropriate air traffic services unit, for the information of aerodrome authorities, of any dangerous goods on board the aircraft, as provided for in the Technical Instructions.

18.8.6 Information in the event of an aircraft accident or incident

1. In the event of:
 - a) an aircraft accident; or
 - b) a serious incident where dangerous goods carried as cargo may be involved, the operator of the aircraft carrying dangerous goods as cargo shall provide information, without delay, to emergency services responding to the accident or serious incident about the dangerous goods on board, as shown on the written information to the pilot-in-command. As soon as possible, the operator shall also provide this information to the appropriate authorities of the State of the Operator and the State in which the accident or serious incident occurred.
2. In the event of an aircraft incident, the operator of an aircraft carrying dangerous goods as cargo shall, if requested to do so, provide information without delay to emergency services responding to the incident and to the appropriate authority of the State in which the incident occurred, about the dangerous goods on board, as shown on the written information to the pilot-in-command.
