Dear Sir/Madam,

We hereby would like to inform you that the Government of Curaçao has rescinded all COVID-19 restrictions for entry into Curaçao effective 5 June 2022, until further notice. This directive supersedes the previously issued directive CURCW/22/087-3 effective 6 May 2022.

As usual, all Passengers travelling to Curaçao are required to complete the Immigration ED, Embarkation – Disembarkation Card online at: <https://dicardcuracao.com/portal>. The passenger shall have a digital or printed copy of the completed Immigration ED Card available for Immigration upon arrival in Curaçao, as received per email from the portal.

Exempted from completing the Immigration ED Card are:

- a. Residents of Curaçao;
- b. Transit/Transfer passengers who depart within 24 hours of arrival;
- c. Active flight crew members.

Directive updates will be published as often as deemed necessary.

Note: For more information see also: <https://ccaa.cw/publications/covid-19/> or

Yours sincerely,

On behalf the Minister of Traffic, Transport and Urban Planning,

drs. Peter Steinmetz,

Director General of the Curaçao Civil Aviation Authority.
